

IN ALL THE COURTS.

A Very Light Day in Judicial Circles.

FOUR CROOKS BOUND OVER.

Fined for Buying Venison—A Countryman Fleece by Bunco Steerers—Hammer vs Blackburn.

The examination of James Howard and William Kennedy, the pair of toughs charged with robbing Dan Mahan, near the Rio Grande Western depot, on the night of December 27, was resumed at the police court yesterday. The evidence against the defendants was conclusive, and they were bound over to await the action of the grand jury, their bonds being fixed at $1,000 each. They were unable to give bonds, of course, and were committed to jail.

WALTERS GOES TO JAIL.
Henry Walters, who tried to raise the wind by passing a forged check for $25 on Goldsmith & Co., was also bound over to await the action of the grand jury, his bond being fixed at $2,000. He accompanied Howard and Kennedy to jail.

HE WAS A VAG.
William Bunits pleaded guilty to the charge of vagrancy, and was sent up for thirty days.
Fred Fanner was assessed $5 for discharging firearms within the city limits.

ONE HUNDRED DAYS.
In the afternoon David Post was tried on the charge of petit larceny. It was alleged that on Christmas eve Post went to the Golden Gate saloon and made himself a Christmas present of a package of clothing belonging to a Mr. Sinclair. The defendant stated that he took the bundle in mistake for one of his own, but his story didn't hang together, and Judge Laney sent him up for 100 days.

The drunks were Paddy Boyle, William Lloyd, Frank Evans, J. C. Williamson, J. W. Collins, Pat Murphy, J. Luce and Paul Schenk.

Hammer vs. Blackburn.
In the case of J. H. Hammer vs. Martin Blackburn, et al., Judge Zane yesterday directed Sam Levy, the receiver, to appropriate out of the funds in his hands $54.60, the sum of $100 for services as receiver, and to apply the balance pro rata upon the following claims: F. D. Clift, $600; B. K. Bloch & Co., $397.38; Sam Levy, $90.35; Cante & Hix, $337.45; electric light company, $3.25; A. L. Williams, $13.75; Mountain Ice Co., $113.26.

For Buying Venison.
It will be remembered that a short time ago Luther Dalrymple, of Bountiful, was fined by Commissioner Pratt for killing deer out of season. At the trial it was brought out that Dalrymple had disposed of the venison to White & Sons. The law makes it unlawful for persons to purchase deer out of season as well as to shoot them, and White & Sons were brought before Commissioner Norrell yesterday on complaint of Game Commissioner Barratt. It was explained that the venison was purchased without thinking about its being out of season, so a fine of $10 and costs was imposed.

In the Probate Court.
In the case of the estate of Edward Osborne the probate court yesterday made orders for the publication of notice to creditors and for the appointment of appraisers.

Fleece by Bunco Men.
S. H. Ellis, of South Bountiful, came to the metropolis yesterday and was caught by bunco steerers, who got him into a den located on Main street. After being fleeced out of $10, Mr. Ellis caught on and notified the officers. The bunco men, fearing arrest, finally gave the money back. This deer is a menace to the community, and THE HERALD will have something more to say about it shortly.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.
Apparently a certain morning journal of this city seeming to be better posted on my intentions than I am myself, as will be observed by their statement on the 21st inst., to the effect that as soon as I had settled my business affairs I contemplated moving to Denver. Now I wish to inform my friends and the public in general that at no time during the past twelve years have I ever contemplated going to Denver or any other place, nor have I ever given the least intention to any person or persons of any intention on my part to leave Salt Lake City. On the contrary, they have always been informed that I am located here for good.

I have been identified with various business enterprises in this city since 1873, and for the past six years in the insurance business representing the leading companies of America and Europe, in fire, life and accident, my office for the past year has been and still is in the Progress block, rooms 514 and 515, where I or one of my representatives can always be found, and I will be pleased to have all my old friends call at any and all times, and will also be delighted to form the acquaintance of all new comers, and have them bear in mind that the agency of Louis Hyams is one of the largest if not the largest in the country, the combined cash capital and assets represented in my office being over $200,000,000. Respectfully,
LOUIS HYAMS,
SALT LAKE CITY, December 22, 1896.

KAYSVILLE KINKS.

The exercises by the higher department of the eighth district school, on Wednesday evening, were exceedingly interesting, and much credit is due Mr. J. H. Linford, who has charge of this department, for his zealous labors with those in his charge. Manager Sheffield had kindly granted the school the use of the Music hall for the evening, and quite a number of the parents and friends of the pupils gathered to hear the very appropriate programme of songs, essays, readings and character dialogues, which had been prepared for the occasion. The programme was unusually well carried out, the pupils showing marked ability in their respective parts. In this connection, it may be truly said, that Kaysville has the best attended school, and also the best qualified teachers of any district in the county. Out of a total of about five hundred children between the ages of six and eighteen, in the district, there are near four hundred names enrolled on the school register. Since the new school law came in force, our schoolhouses have been crowded, and the trustees have found it necessary to rent another room in order to accommodate the children. Our trustees, Messrs. Linford, Sheffield and Barnes are doing good work and are leaving nothing undone that would add to the comfort or convenience of the schoolhouses or their surroundings.

KILLED BY A TRAIN.
About 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon a shocking accident happened on the Union Pacific, a few miles north of Layton. It seems that it is customary for a crowd of boys to gather at the depot, and when a heavily loaded train comes along, to get on and have a ride. Yesterday afternoon when No. 22 came up, two boys, one of them the fifteen-year-old son of Chris Weaver tried to get on. In some way the Weaver boy slipped and fell under the wheels. When he was picked up, it was found that the wheels had run over one of his legs, between the knee and ankle, and that he was otherwise seriously injured. Doctors were sent for, but nothing could be done for him, and after lingering for a few hours, he died. The parents of the unfortunate youth have the sympathy of the entire community in their affliction.

GENERAL NOTES.
"M" wishes all his friends a happy New Year.
Hon. Joseph Barton was down from Ogden on Monday.
Arthur F. Barnes and wife, of Salt Lake, ate Christmas dinner in Kayville.
Wilford S. and Royal C. Barnes and Fred Underwood of Salt Lake, spent Christmas in Kayville.
Miss Nancy Ritchie, of Marriots, has been visiting friends in Kayville during the week.
Miss Lissa Ball went home, to Coalville on Wednesday afternoon to spend the holidays.

The household of Mr. George H. Draper was made happy early Wednesday morning by the birth of a "graduating baby boy." The Kayville Historical and Debating Club intend to hold a reorganization meeting on Monday evening next, at 7:30.
Merchants have been doing a rushing business during this week, and the number of toys as well as the substantial presents that have disappeared from their windows, goes to show that Santa Claus visited nearly every house.

Christmas was generally observed as a holiday in Kayville. Business houses, with few exceptions, closed, and the people gave the day to rest and the enjoyment of the usual festivities.
We have it on good authority that our hotel is soon to be reopened and put in first-class running order. For some days past, Mr. Frank Greenwell, of Ogden, has been negotiating with Mr. Larkins, the present proprietor, with a view to purchasing the building and property, and opening the house in the near future.
Mr. Greenwell was looking over the property to-day, and it is thought, that he was favorably impressed with the outlook. It is certain that Mr. Greenwell or any one else who understands his business, can make a success of the hotel business in Kayville.

PRONOUNCED HOPELESS, YET SAVED.
From a letter received from Mrs. Ada E. Hurd, of Gelson, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles; it has cured me, and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free at A. C. Smith & Co's drug store, regular size 50c. and $1.00.
